

Listening to the parents - Conversation

Areas	Conversation summary
Greeting	A warm and welcoming tone of voice to convey a positive attitude.
Introducing ourselves	name, organization, role/title etc - a story can be added too if comfortable
Setting context to the call	Mentioning any reference that they would have come through..i understand that you had a short conversation with sumi/Rama. We wanted a dedicated time and mindspace to be able to share and listen and hence we are here.
Expressing Appreciation	Gratitude for their time and willingness to meet us. I really appreciate the opportunity to discuss your child's progress and how we can best support them.
Establishing the purpose of the meeting	This is a semi formal meeting where we would like to listen to you about yourself, your child, and your journey today. We will be speaking about how we can associate with and be with you in your journey when we meet on _____. We will be spending 45 minutes to 1 hour today. We request your permission to record this meeting and also take notes as you speak. (Purpose & agenda items that we will cover in this meeting.)
End	We will give you the prompts & the nudges, please feel free to share your thoughts or ask questions you may have.
Inviting them to share	Express their thoughts, concerns, questions etc...Their input is valuable and we are there to listen and collaborate. I would love to hear your perspective on how things have been going and any specific areas you would like to discuss.

Areas	Conversation summary
Name of the child	Rishi
Date of conversation
Age	5 years 4 months
DoB	12/07/2020
Area of residence	vivian paradise,108 D,Kilpauk,chennai -45
Parent's info
Name of parents
Are both parents present?	Priyan,yes.both working parents in IT sector
Can you tell us about yourself - background, education, profession, and any information that they may want to share - interests, hobbies..
Parent Input
(Inputs from Gform will be present here)	To bring her an independent child each day is a new learning that brings motivation to me.
-motivation/inspiration	Yes,I prioritise my health so that I will be available to my child whenever needed
-Strengths/interests as a parent	Yes, prioritising my career and my kid
-concerns/barriers in parenting	Yes, during the evening hours, it is getting difficult.
-self care -support systems

Areas	Conversation summary
Family info <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Siblings? - Nuclear/joint family? - Primary caretaker? - what they love to do as a family? - Any other important info (single parent, history of illness in family etc) 	no Mother Going on vacation
Appreciation	Glad to know about your journey- empathize with them about their parental journey

Areas	Conversation summary	Conversation summary
	Narmatha	Aparna
Birth History	normal delivery with delayed cry
Developmental Milestones – Motor / Lang / Speech	At around one and a half years.
Food / Sleep pattern / Any medication?	disturbed sleep patterns,sensitive to sound.
ADLs - General Routine	like a sweet and sour chocolate.
Socialization / Emotional /communication/ Sensory	There will be struggles always, but slowly she will start accepting it
Schools attended / School he/she currently in / Grade	Hosur
Any assessment done?	To the paediatrician
Previous interventions given / Current intervention	yes.
Other information	Though we give therapies, there was no consistency, and we had problems in the school, too. So Elina was recommended by our therapist to understand the process and how our child can be supported to transition into a normal school yes,the therapies really helped her a lot Each is celebrated as if she has crossed a great barrier in life.

Areas	Conversation summary	Conversation summary
	Narmatha	Aparna
Strengths/ Interests of the child	positivity Going out, socialising
Academics -His/her favourite subjects -His/Her least favourite subject / Why? -Is s/he independent in doing homework? -Time management skills -General inputs received from teachers	science because of the teacher Time management is a greater task not fully focused.
Could you describe the current support system in place for your child, including the involvement of teachers, therapists, and other professionals? Are you satisfied with your current support structure? IF yes, what are some features of the support system that helps you as a parent? IF no, why?	Not reacting too much to the situation and remaining calm, accepting whatever comes on the way yes, both positively as well as negatively It has changed me into a strong, confident person

Areas	Conversation summary
What are the specific challenges or areas where you feel your child may need additional support or intervention? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - according to your observation -according to what others have told you 	handwriting,time management,maths
How do you believe these challenges are impacting your child's overall well-being and ability to thrive? How does affect you as a parent? What do you feel?	each day is a challenge for both in getting things done.
Can you share any specific instances where you feel the current approaches or strategies may not be effectively addressing your child's needs?	Daily dumping up with a lot of homework doesn't work for her.It feels overwhelming
What are the challenges that are bothering you? prioritize	focus

Areas		Conversation summary
What are your hopes and future goals(short-term goals) for your child's growth and inclusion? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What are your dreams and goals for your child's future success and inclusion? ○ How important is it to you that your child is accepted and valued in their community? 	What do you imagine your child achieving and experiencing as they get older?	Nil 1
How do you see your child growing, learning, and becoming more independent? Basically, aspirations for your child <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ How do you imagine your child developing new skills, gaining knowledge, and becoming more capable? ○ Can you picture your child taking on new responsibilities and making decisions on his/her own? 	Any parent would want to see their child growing, learning, and becoming more independent. What steps do you think you or your child needs to take, to become more independent and confident?	Nil 2

Areas		Conversation summary
What do you think might happen if we don't address the current challenges properly? What opportunities could be missed? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What concerns do you have about the potential consequences if the current challenges are not handled effectively? ○ Can you think of opportunities for growth, learning, and progress that may be missed if the challenges are not properly addressed? 	Let's imagine for some reason we are unable to follow the steps as told by you in the above section. Then, how do you think your child's development and future prospects could be affected? How does it affect you as a parent?	Nil 3

Areas		Conversation summary
What do you see for your child's future with the right support and inclusive opportunities? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Can you imagine the positive impact that receiving the right support and opportunities would have on your child's future? ○ Can you see how your child's future would improve with the right support and opportunities? ○ How do you see your child thriving and reaching their full potential with the appropriate support in place? ○ Picture your child having access to inclusive environments and resources that empower them to lead a fulfilling and successful life. 	Let's imagine we are able to get proper guidance/people and team and we are able to address your child's need. Then, do you think your child will be reaching his/her full potential with the appropriate support in place? How will you feel supported as a parent?	Nil 4

Areas		Conversation summary
Thorough evaluation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What would it mean for you and your child to have a complete assessment and understanding of their strengths and challenges? ○ How could a thorough evaluation help identify the best ways to support your child's specific needs and abilities? ○ Imagine how having a clear picture of your child's strengths and areas for growth could guide their educational journey and overall development. 	As a parent, how do you see an assessment of your child ? Does it provide a complete evaluation of your child's strengths and stretches (areas of challenges) ? And have you been able to see that as a window to support your child in his or her educational journey and overall development?	nil 5

Areas		Conversation summary
Personalized help: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ How do you think personalized assistance tailored to your child's unique needs would make a difference in their progress? ○ Can you imagine how individualized support would help your child overcome challenges and learn at their own pace? ○ Think about the impact of targeted interventions and strategies designed specifically for your child's success, that can have on his/her overall development and achievement. 	Have you ever felt the need for targeted interventions and strategies designed specifically for your child's progress? In what ways do you think it can help in his/her overall development and progress? In what ways does it help you as a parent?	nil 6

Areas		Conversation summary
Ongoing guidance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What benefits do you think you and your child would experience from having continuous support and guidance throughout their development? ○ How could ongoing guidance help you navigate challenges, make informed decisions, and access necessary resources? ○ What would be the benefit and value of having a supportive and knowledgeable ally who can provide advice and strategies to navigate your child's developmental milestones and challenges as they grow? 	How could ongoing guidance help you navigate challenges, make informed decisions, and access necessary resources?	nil 7

Areas		Conversation summary
Supportive and inclusive environment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ How do you believe a supportive and inclusive environment would contribute to your child's happiness, well-being, and sense of belonging? ○ Can you imagine the positive impact of being surrounded by peers, teachers, and community members who value and embrace diversity? ○ Consider the benefits of an environment where your child can fully participate, express themselves, and develop positive relationships 	All that we look for in an environment for the child is happiness, well-being and sense of belonging where he/she can fully participate, express themselves and develop positive relationships. Does the description above resonate with the word "inclusive" for you? or do you have anything to add to the above description? Does your child have access to such an environment right now?	nil 8

Areas		Conversation summary
Expertise and resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What positive changes and progress do you see when your child has access to the right experts who understand their needs? ○ How do you think having appropriate resources, such as specialized tools or therapies, could enhance your child's development? ○ Imagine the possibilities and growth that can unfold when your child is provided with the specialised expertise and valuable resources that align with his/her unique journey? 	How do you think having appropriate resources, such as specialized tools or therapies, could enhance your child's development?	nil 9

Areas	Conversation summary
Based on the discussion we had so far, I do understand the set of challenges, what is your top problem in your mind right now? What do you see as a potential solution for that?	nil 10
This brings us pretty much close of this conversation. Any conflicts/questions that's on your mind right now?	nil 11
Scheduling the next meet announced(hold on your curiosity)	nil 12
So how are you feeling yourself, it's been ----- min expressing yourself, hearing each other out... I am feeling very _____ after this.. How are you feeling? can you tell an adjective of how you are feeling	nil 13
Anything you want to ask or add on?	nil 14
Looking forward to the next meet.	nil 15